JACK TAR DRESSES
For Graduation

You can't blame the girls for choosing a "different" frock for graduation. These Jack Tar Dresses are quaintly simple, and therefore, becoming, for youth needs little decoration. These comfortable frocks may be worn without fear of soiling. A trip to the laundry is all that is necessary to make them new—you can tub 'em and scrub 'em, they come up smiling.

Made of white "middy cloth" and white poplin with white or colored collars—$6, $12, $18.

THE JOYS OF A
HOMESPUN

Something to slip over a suit for a little added warmth, for wear when motoring or at any time, but the most formal occasion, there is nothing like the comfort afforded by one of the smart, new Polo Coats of homespun, belted, trigly pocketed and collared, camel's hair cloth or jersey; snugly well tailored and lined throughout.

$18.00 to $49.50

Dashing Plaid

Skirts

Jaunty and New

There's no time like the present for wearing plaid skirts or buying them. Worn with a short separate coat or sweater they are ideal for golf, tramping, motoring and general utility wear. There's a diversity of models and plaids permitting a wide range in choice. $12.00 to $35.00.

BOYS' WASH SUITS

That boyish way of forgetting clothes makes it necessary for mothers to have a generous lot of Wash Suits, particularly later on, when coats are no longer present to give a little protection. Materials, workmanship and style of these wash suits are of such value as to make it desirable for every young mother to outfit her young man early in the season. All sizes. $2.00 to $6.00. (Men's Store Annex)

Even when boys have graduated into Blouses, "keeping clean" is a minor detail, and for that age here are sturdy blouses made to stand wear only active boys can give. $1, $1.50, $2.00
